

ACHIEVEMENT IN PUBLISHING

ROB TANNER

Rob Tanner is a staunch steward of magazines, and has been since starting Tanner Young Publishing Group in 1990. As President and Group Publisher, Rob's production includes several long-running titles, such as WHERE Edmonton, Canadian Cowboy Country, and the Edmonton City Guide. It's no easy feat operating a business that offers custom publishing services alongside its own consumer titles, but Rob does so with ease all while offering his talents to supporting the direction of organizations that serve the arts, businesses, and communities in the province.

Rob was a founding member of the Alberta Magazine Publishers Association and has been instrumental in advocating on behalf of the industry. He has steered the Association as both a Board Member and President, and also serves as a Board Member with the Alberta Cultural Industries Association.

After decades of working with magazines, Rob is an incredible pillar of support for new talents and seasoned professionals. His commitment to serving the industry and its people is evidenced in the numerous leadership roles Rob has assumed, and his dedication to preserving a sustainable and healthy environment for magazine publishing is unmatched.
